INDONESIA TO DISRUPT THE PORTUGUESE M.P. VISIT TO EAST TIMOR

Indonesian Security Forces are gearing up for the much waited visit of a Portuguese Parliamentary Delegation to East Timor in August 1991.

East Timorese students in Dili, the capital of East Timor, claimed that the Indonesian secret service "INTEL" are arming their timorese informers, with hand guns, to disrupt the M.P.'s visit.

They also said that the indonesians are mobilising more than 400 youths, from district of Manatuto, central region, to take part in anti-Portuguese demonstrations during the visit.

The students also confirmed that the guerrilla fighters^{gh}, of the East Timor Liberation Army, killed 14 Indonesians soldiers, of the battalion 303, during clashes in the district of Same at the South West coast, on july 20th, 1991.
